Selection criteria

All team managers have undertaken to select their teams based on the guidelines below. Please hold them to these.

- Managers will consider paid up club members first. Lists of paid up members will be kept by the respective team managers.
- Player's attendance of practices will be considered next.
- Players who missed practice but did inform the manager will be selected next.
- Discipline issues will be considered next.
- Players in their 2 week introductory period will only then be selected. Introductory players are those players who have submitted membership application forms, but have not paid their subs yet.
- Emergency players will only then be considered. Emergency players are players who are contacted at the last minute to fill a vacant spot in a team, these players must complete a club membership form before they will be allowed to represent the club. Managers will have membership forms at both practices and matches.
- Introductory and emergency players must be used in such a way that is not detrimental to paid up
